Dear Sir/Madam

PROVISIONAL OFFER OF ADMISSION.

After due consideration of your application for admission to this institution, I am pleased to write on behalf of the above named institution to offer you a provisional admission to undergo two semesters (12 months ) Interim Joint Matriculation Board (IJMB) programme in the following subjects:

(i).....(ii).....

(iii)..... In 2019/2020 Academic year, on the condition that:

- All Particulars provided on your Application form are correct in every respect.
- You will present at the time of registration the original copies of the credentials listed in your application form for scrutiny, GCE/SSCE examination results slip will be presented in addition to the original certificates if the original certificates have not been issued, the online result slip alone will be accepted.
- If at anytime even after registration, it is discovered that you do not satisfy the minimum entry requirements prescribed for your course of study at the time of this offer or that any of the qualifications you purported to have had is false or incorrect, your admission will be withdrawn.
- The name by which you are hereby admitted and by which you will be registered is the one which will appear on any certificate that the IJMB governing Board, Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria may issues to you on successful completion of your course except there is a change in marital status for female students only supported by sworn affidavit of marriage certificate.
- The offer is not transferable to another session.

2. All candidates are hereby informed that the fees must be paid in full before the commencement of final Mock Examination in November, 2019.

3. Failure to pay your fees in full and complete the necessary documentation means you have declined the offer.

4. Candidates who withdraw after registration will not be entitled to any refund.

Yours Faithfully,

Emmanuel Erhabor
